DULL SOCIAL SEASON

FEW ENTERTAINMENTS LAST WEEK BUT ALL WENT TO THE CARNAVAL

Many Marriages in Prospect-A Joyot Children's Party-Dance at the Reighte-Our Friends.

Society for the past week has been duliexceedingly dull-and come has been steadily stealing over those who heretofore have had almost their surfeit of pleasure. The gentlemen of several of the man clubs became desperate and have eided to give a subscription german this week, which will be a brilliant affair, as over fifty couples will participate.

Mrs. Raiph Johnson and daughter, Miss Mabel, of Washington. D. C., are stopping at Mrs. Duval's, 301 east Franklin. The truth of the matter is, the ladies having charge of the Carnava de la Mer have captured nearly all of the pretty girls in the city, and those who are not actually engaged at the "tabernacle" attend every night. Messrs. W. Ashby Jones and T. W. Tignor have returned from a very successful fishing trip on the Chickahominy river. Mr. Jones caught a chub the weight of which was eight and a half pounds. MANY WILL MARRY. Dr. Kerr being quite sick with the grippe, Rev. Dr. Richardson will preach for him at the First Presbyteria church this morning. There will be no services at night.

There will be a considerable stir in the matrimonial world this week, or rather the prespective matrimonial world, and an unusual number of weddings will take place.

Mr. Isaac Sycle, Jr., of this city, will be married next Wednesday to Miss Amy David, of Wilmington, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sycle, Miss Etta Soycle, and Messra. Seymour Sycle, Myer Sycle, and Moses Rose left yesterday for Wilmington to attend the wedding.

On Friday evening last from 6 to 10 o'clock Miss May Sandys Lynch, a little dream of blonde beauty, celebrated the occasion of her twelfth birthday by entertaining one hundred young guests at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Lynch, 362 south Third street, including quite a party from Petersburg. Burrounded by prettily-arranged decorations of ferns and fairy lamps the little boatess received her friends with charming grace, assisted by Misses Gordon, LeFroy, Townes, Drewry, and Hair. Supper was served at 8 o'clock in Moenta's best style, to which was added the pleasing accessory of a punch-bowl, whose presiding genius wass Miss Virgie Drewry. A sweet feature of the occasion was the attention shown to every want of the innerry livelies by Misses Ellen Blair, Louise Brander, and K. Drewry, who contributed in every way to the enjoyment of happy, joyous childhood so near to them in retrospect. LITTLE POLES' PARTY.

The slicing of the birthday-cake was full of interest, the successful young lady who acquired the enclosed ring being Miss Tootsy Christian. The entertainment ended with the dancing of the german, led by Mr. Kennon Collier, of Petersburg, with marked grace and ability. Among the guests present were Misses Aline Stokes. Edna Forbes, Pauline Powers, Nannie and Phillis Langhorne, Bessie and N. Dunlop, Lenise Lucke, Bridges, Helen Christian, Ethel Pace, S. Drewry, M. Williamson, Simpkin, K. and S. Meredith, S. Pitt, K. and H. Macintire, Wherry, L. Davenport, Mayo, Watkins, Brander, Breeden, Cannon, Tyler, Nannie and Ida Steger, Lathrop, and Blair; also, Messrs. Tar White Fuller, Allen Stokes, Blanchard, Forbes, Gordon, Lathrop, Bridges, Tanner, Breeden, George Lynch, Munford, W. Simpkin, Lambert, O. Steger, Brander, G, and E. Pair, and Tyler, Among those from Petersburg were Misses E. and L. Townes, and Messrs. Kennon Collier, Robert Martin, W. Townes, and Herbert Mann. BLICING OF THE CARE. DANCE AT THE REIGHTS. The Barton Heights Athletic and Mus

The Barton Heights Athletic and Musical Association gave another one of their delightful dances at the "Wigwam" last Friday night. The ladies present were Mrs. Lamb. Mrs. Gay. Mrs. J. H. Harvey, Mrs. R. L. Smith. Mrs. W. O. Shelbourne, Mrs. George Minor, Misses Hattie O'Bannon, Rene Jackson, Lucy Beech, Helen Ross, Barton, Graham, Nale, Jvy Fox, Taylor, and Jennie Snyder.

The gentlemen who attended were: Messrs, George Minor, Lamb, R. L. Smith, Paul Redd, H. B. Hartman, R. W. Taylor, Davie Graham, Thomas Ruffin, L. Ruffin, Hugh Miller, Charles Burnette, William Redd, Gay. Joseph Fourqurean, H. Burnett, and C. Redd.

WENT TO THE COUNTRY TO DANCE.

WENT TO THE COUPTRY TO DANCE.

On Friday night at 7:30 o'clock quite a large number of Indies and gentlemen, members of the "Bellevue Pleasure Club," left the city in a 'bus, tor a dance at "Steinback's Hal." in the country, and at 3 o'clock Saturday morning the crowd returned. They pronounce the affair a decided success. Mrs. S. E. Fitchett gave a charming er tertainment in honor of her daughter Birdie's birthday last Thursday night. Those present were Messrs Seth Muire, Clarence Muire, Earnest Muire, Luther Winn, Lee Nash, and Misses Blanche Blackburn, Jennie Patterson, and Rosa Winn, Lee Nash, and Misses Blanche Blackburn, Jennie Patterson, and Rosa Mure.

Mrs. Luther R. Jenkins on Wednesday

Names on the Poll-Books.

Sheriff Southward last night served a notice on Mr. W. H. Sands, late registrar of Shoemaker's precinct, Henrico, that the Supreme Court would on Wednesday next be asked to grant a mandamus to compel him to report to Judge Minor, of the County Court, why he refused to register George Coleman, a negro who applied to him after he resigned.

Mr. Sands informed a Disparcie man that the negroes had a habit of coming to his house at all hours of the day and far into the night, and that he resigned his office rather than to be bothered. George Coleman came to be registered after he had handed in his resignation and he refused to put him on the books.

"I don't make any charges against any one," said Mr. Sands, concluding his conversation, "but in the language of Brother Gardner, of the Lime-Kiin Club, it is a 'curious coincidence' that the very night Thomas A. Ewers, 1002 west Main street.

TALLAHASSEE, FLA., April 11 .- A she affray took place on the piazza of the seon Hotel about 2 o'clock this afternoon between S. S. Harvey, of Pensacola, an J. E. Alexander, of Deland. Harvey has seen one of the active workers for John F. Dunn in his contest for the States senatorship, and Alexander is here in Call's interest. Harvey was seated on the piazza when Alexander came up the the piazza when Alexander came up the steps with W. H. Clark, ex-postmaster of Jacksonville. Harvey beckoned to Alex-ander to walk down the porch with him. Harvey had heard that Alexander had re-ported that he (Harvey) had boasted that there was $250,000 in hand at Tallahassee with which to defeat Call, and he asked Alexander if he had circulated this story, adding that he did not propose to let him or any other man tell damned lies about him.

BOTH DEEW. Alexander asked if Harvey meant to call him a liar, and upon Harvey's replying "Yes," he struck Harvey a blow on the left temple. Then both men drew their pistols almost simultaneously. Harvey fired. Clark struck his arm up and the ball missed Alexander. Alexander turned and ran, and Harvey fired a second shot at him the tersend through the door. Clark as he passed through the door. Clark, still struggling with Harvey, then ran to the door and fired a third shot at Alexander as the latter disappeared through the back door of the office leading to the barber-shop. None of the shots took effect, with the execution of a spent hall, which with the exception of a spent ball, which hit Albertus Vogt in the foot, doing no in

When Havey fired the third shot across the office there were half a dozen people passing in and out of the dining-room and up and down the stairs. But luckily no one was hit. The wildest excitement prevailed for a few minutes, and the whole hotel was in an uproar. Several minor altercations grew out of the affair, but nothing serious. HOW HARVEY GOT THE DROP.

HOW HARVEY GOT THE DROP.

Alexander says that his pistol caught in the case as he was pulling it from his pocket, which enabled Harvey to "get the drop" on him. After that he did not dare to fire for fear of hitting Clark, who was struggling with Harvey. Alexander undoubtedly owes his life to Clark's interference. No arrests were made, but the Mayor served notice on both men to appear in court Monday morning. in court Monday morning. THEY WILL BE FINED.

It is predicted that he will fine both mer heavily under two or three different charges. client in the court-room, at the conclusion of which Mr. George D. Wise stated to the Court that as they were not aware why the accused had been given up by his bondsmen they had no motion to make. Shortly after this Captain Epps left the City Hall with his prisoner, who was taken to his home for a few minutes and thence to the jail.

It was stated yesterday that one of the reasons why Grymes's bondsmen gave him up was that it had been reported that he was seen in Charlottesville. His counsel positively deny the truth of this, and say except going a few miles up and down the was seen in Charlottesville. His counsel positively deny the truth of this, and say except going a few miles up and down the road the accused was at Big Island all the time he was away.

Speaking to a Disparch man vesterdays Commonwealth's-Attorney Smith said that he had no authority to give permission to any one on bail to leave the city. Such a person was in custody of his sureties. In this particular instance he knew nothing of Grymes being out of the city until a few days before the grand jury met, when one of the counsel asked him not to send the case before that body last Monday, saying that Grymes was at Big Island and would be produced at the proper time.

As to the bail-bond being forfeited in consequence of Grymes's non-appearance last Monday, for which time he was recognized, Mr. Smith said this was not the case. Yesterday morning Mr. Boudarsubmitted to Mayor Eilyson a partial report of the result of his investigation of the books in the Treasurer's office. A fuller one is looked for in the next few days, when it is believed that affairs will take an unexpected turn. The Mayor was in conference several hours yesterday with Auditor Turpin, City-Attorney Meredith, and Mr. Boudar.

Ernest Cleveland Smith, the seven-yearold son of Mr. B. J. Smith, who resides at No. 908 north Twenty-fifth street, was run over by a heavy wagon yesterday afternoon not far from his father's house and received injuries from which he died in less than half an hour.

Mr. Smith is a machinist and has been employed at Talbott's foundry for several years. When he got home yesterday afternoon he found the little fellow sitting on the porch waiting for him. The child asked permission to go out and play for awhile, and when his father consented he ran out and got on a passing wagon.

Several vehicles were passing up the street, one behind the other, and when a short distance from his home £rnest got off the wagon upon which he was riding.
In doing this he was knocked down by another wagon and his skull was fractured and three ribe broken.

The wounded child was taken home and Dr. Hinchman summoned, but despite the efforts of the physician he died in a few minutes.

efforts of the physician he died in a few minutes.

Coroner Taylor viewed the remains and decided to hold an inquest this afternoon at 4 o'clock. He was unable to ascertain who the driver of the vehicle which ran over Ernest was, but it is understood that the man was not to blame and that he stopped the wagon as soon as the boy was knocked down, but thinking he was not seriously hurt, went on in a short while. The wagon belonged to Mr. Bessieux and had been hauling wood.

Mr. Mann S. Valentine is defendant in the other case, which is for one certificate of 20 shares of the same stock, valued at $1,600.

The stock in question was originally placed with a Richmond broker, who, it is said, repledged it with the defendants named and became financially embarrassed before redeeming the securities.

Mr. Hall had a running account with the broker referred to.

GIRLS FLIRT WITH FANS. A Protty Drill at the Carnaval Last Night-The Comodetta To-Morrow.

The Comodetta To-Morrow.

The threatening weather last night did not, by any means, have the effect of keeping the people away from the Carnaval de lar Mer, and another large crowd attended. Though not so great as on Friday, the large building was more than well filled.

The Fan Drill, by several of the prettiest and best known young society ladies of the city, was the feature of the evening and perhaps elicited more applause and admiration than any entertainment given since the opening of the Carnaval. The ladies, who were beautifully led by Mrs. H. A. Tabb and Miss Nellie Parker, acquitted themselves in a very graceful manner, and their coquetries with their fans made them look as sweet and mischievous as possible. They received an enthusiastic encore, and everybody remarked upon the creditable manner in which the drill was performed. The following took part in it: Mrs. H. A. Tabb and Miss Nellie Parker, Misses Carrie Moore and Bertha Pleasants, Misses Carrie Moore and Bertha Pleasants, Misses Imogen Morris and Bradley, Mrs. C. C. A Crime for Judge Lynch.
[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

KNOXYILLE, TENN., April II.—The details of the most horrible crime ever perpetrated in this section came to light in the Magistrates Court this afternoon. Two boys, aged sixteen and eighteen, Fred. Minter and Charles Hodge, in last November horribly abused Flovd Pickett, aged eight years, and subjected him to indignities that an Apache Indian would be ashamed of. In the latter part of February the boy died, but the details of the crime were kept quiet by the child's parents until the names of the perpetrators could be discovered. This was done a day or two ago, and the brutes were brought to Knoxville. The strength of the new jail will most probably be tried as soon as the public knows the full horrible news. The crime was committed in this county.
